

For human rights and environmental protection: Dürr joins United Nations Global Compact

Bietigheim-Bissingen, October 26, 2020 – Dürr AG has joined the world’s largest and most important initiative for responsible corporate governance: The United Nations Global Compact. Thus, the company is committed to the ten sustainable principles in the realms of human rights, labor standards, environment and anti-corruption.

“We are thus underlining once again that we align economic activity with ecology and fair working conditions”, says Dr. Jochen Weyrauch, Deputy CEO of Dürr AG and responsible on the Board of Management for Corporate Sustainability.

By joining the UN Global Compact, Dürr AG has become part of a worldwide network of over 15,000 companies and organizations from civil society, politics and science in more than 160 countries. Together, they are committed to a sustainable future for the benefit of all people, communities and markets.

The principles of the UN Global Compact include that participating companies reject child labor and discrimination in hiring and employment, accelerate the development of environmentally friendly technologies and support the protection of human rights.

This publication has been prepared independently by Dürr AG/Dürr group. It may contain statements which address such key issues as strategy, future financial results, events, competitive positions and product developments. Such forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors, including, but not limited to those described in disclosures of Dürr AG, in particular in the chapter "Risks" in the annual report of Dürr AG. Should one or more of these risks, uncertainties and other factors materialize, or should underlying expectations not occur or assumptions prove incorrect, actual results, performances or achievements of the Dürr group may vary materially from those described in the relevant forward-looking statements. These statements may be identified by words such as "expect," "want," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "believe," "seek," "estimate," "will," "project" or words of similar meaning. Dürr AG neither intends, nor assumes any obligation, to update or revise its forward-looking statements regularly in light of developments which differ from those anticipated. Stated competitive positions are based on management estimates supported by information provided by specialized external agencies.

Our financial reports, presentations, press releases and ad-hoc releases may include alternative financial metrics. These metrics are not defined in the IFRS (International Financial Reporting Standards). Net assets, financial position and results of operations of the Dürr group should not be assessed solely on the basis of these alternative financial metrics. Under no circumstances do they replace the performance indicators presented in the consolidated financial statements and calculated in accordance with the IFRS. The calculation of alternative financial metrics may vary from company to company despite the use of the same terminology. Further information regarding the alternative financial metrics used at Dürr AG can be found in our financial glossary on the web page (<https://www.durr-group.com/en/investor-relations/service-awards/glossary>).
