

War in Ukraine: Dürr Group donates €150,000 for humanitarian aid

Bietigheim-Bissingen, March 4, 2022 — The Dürr Group supports humanitarian aid for the people of Ukraine. The company donates €150,000 to Caritas international, the relief organization of the German Caritas association.

“What’s happening here in Europe is a tragedy that is causing the suffering of millions of people. We want to make a contribution to go some way toward alleviating the distress,” says Dr. Jochen Weyrauch, CEO of Dürr AG. “War is never a solution. We hope that the Russian government will soon realize its aberration.”

Dr. Jochen Weyrauch adds that the Group’s works council and the entire staff back this donation from the company: “The impressions from the war zones have shocked us all.”

Caritas international, together with its partners in Ukraine and in different neighboring countries, takes care of people who are being forced to flee due to the acts of war. Among other things, the aid organization provides those seeking protection with food and drinking water. In addition, it offers emergency shelter and washing facilities to the homeless.
