

CFO Dietmar Heinrich extends contract until 2026

Bietigheim-Bissingen, August 3, 2022 — The Dürr AG Supervisory Board has extended the appointment of CFO Dietmar Heinrich until September 30, 2026. The 59-year-old has been part of Dürr AG's two-strong Board of Management since August 2020. His contract was originally due to terminate on July 31, 2023. The extension of three years and two months that has now been agreed will see his appointment end when he reaches the age limit of 63.

Gerhard Federer, Chairman of the Dürr AG Supervisory Board, says: "Dietmar Heinrich is an experienced, hands-on, and systematic CFO with excellent knowledge of the operating business and close proximity to the employees. This makes him a perfect match for the Dürr Group. Over the last two years, he has launched important initiatives, for instance in connection with the Group's cash flow generation, the reorientation of the finance and IT areas, and the further development of our capital market communication. His contract extension is an important indicator of continuity in the CFO's key position."

Dietmar Heinrich forms the Dürr AG Board of Management together with CEO Dr. Jochen Weyrauch. In addition to his role as CFO, the industrial engineer is also responsible for the IT function and the Measuring and Process Systems division.
